

Summer School for Young Creative Flutists

Ana Kavčič Pucihar, Flute

In July of 2010, another unforgettable arts festival will intertwine musical and fine arts in the streets of Ptuj. Cultural associations Arsana and KUD Art Stays are preparing eleven days of creative fusion, which will flood the old town core with colours, music, dance and other creative endeavours. We have over 60 excellent events coming up!

We invite you to join us and spend this week with us and with the elite musicians who will teach at the master classes. We have prepared seminars for piano, violin, viola, violoncello, flute, and solo singing, and for the first time this year we have added a summer school for young creative flutists.

- group warm-up activities,
